Popcorn Pick: 'Paper Lion'

Those who can't play football, write about football, and then sometimes play anyway. The 1968 film "Paper Lion," based on the 1966 nonfiction book of the same name, charts the real-life adventure of participatory journalist George Plimpton as he sneaks his way through the Detroit Lions training camp. Alan Alda plays Plimpton and co-stars with the actual Lions coaching staff and players in this classic romp pitting the Harvard-educated intellectual against some of America's toughest professional athletes. During his colorful writing career, Plimpton also tried his hand at the New York Philharmonic, the circus trapeze and acting in a film starring John Wayne.
